

CLUSTER BOMBS:

GET THEM MILIBANNED

Cluster bombs have been killing and injuring civilians for over 40 years. The Oslo Process, launched in February 2007 with the support of 46 nations, aims to conclude a treaty prohibiting cluster bombs by 2008.

As one of the world's biggest users of cluster bombs, the UK now has an opportunity to play a leading role in the protection of civilians from these indiscriminate weapons.

Please sign-up in support of the letter overleaf calling on the Foreign Secretary, David Miliband to address the cluster bombs issue immediately. The time to act is now.
